

Camille Moynot appointed Group Human Resources Director at AU Group

AU Group, a leading broker and consultancy firm specialised in trade credit and political risk management and working capital financing, announces the appointment of Camille Moynot as Group Human Resources Director.

AU Group continues its growth with the recruitment of Camille Moynot as HR Director. This role carries a global dimension, in line with the company's strategy of supporting its clients worldwide by providing them with expertise built over more than 90 years.

The Group firmly believes that success in specialized brokerage relies above all on committed talent. This is why AU Group places the fulfillment of its teams at the core of its strategy, ensuring they have the skills, tools, and support needed to grow. The global scope of the HR function makes it possible to spread this approach and ensure consistency across all the countries where the Group operates.

Camille Moynot will be responsible for implementing a harmonised HR policy within the group. She will work closely with Louis Bollaert, CEO, to support global expansion. Her mission will include developing HR practices tailored to each country in collaboration with local leaders. The intention is to promote skills development and career progression for employees, while strengthening the company culture based on accountability and collective strength.

Biography of Camille Moynot, an experienced Human Resources professional

Camille Moynot has more than 20 years of experience in human resources, mainly in the financial sector. After starting her career in several recruitment and career assessment firms, she joined Société Générale Group in 2010. Over the course of 15 years, she held both specialist and generalist positions, which enabled her to gain a comprehensive view of HR challenges. Among other responsibilities, she developed expertise in international coordination, supporting various group international subsidiaries. Camille Moynot then joined BoursoBank in 2022 as Head of HR Development, where she led initiatives in training, talent management, and managerial development for nearly 4 years. Aged 46, Camille Moynot holds a Master's degree (DESS) in Psychology from Paris 7 University.

"I am delighted to welcome Camille to our family-owned and independent group. She will play a strategic role in AU Group's development by continuing to strengthen our HR foundations, one of the key pillars of our growth plan. She will help enhance our attractiveness and talent retention—both essential in our businesses where expertise is paramount," said Vivien de Lassée, Chairman of AU Group.

"I am very pleased to be working with Camille. Her knowledge of the financial sector and her HR experience will help us reinforce our strategic expertise—not only in credit insurance, but also in political risk, financing, and surety, areas where we are accelerating. Our goal is to attract and retain the best talent, which requires a strong HR strategy across all the countries where we operate and those where we plan to expand," added Louis Bollaert, CEO of AU Group.

"I am thrilled to be joining AU Group, with its strong family spirit and with high growth momentum, whose uniqueness I immediately recognised. My ambition is to promote the Group's corporate culture internationally, fostering values of autonomy and collaboration to support employees in their career development. I am highly motivated to further structure AU Group's HR function across all its subsidiaries," said Camille Moynot, Group HR Director at AU Group.
