

PRESS RELEASE APPOINTMENT

AU Group, a leading broker specialised in securing and financing trade receivables, is delighted to announce the arrival of Nuria Gorog as Senior Vice President Specialty Credit, Political Risk and Surety.

This appointment further strengthens our Special Risk team and confirms our global development strategy.

Nuria has over 25 years experience in underwriting complex and large risks. When working at Coface Group and later Zurich Insurance, she used her expertise to provide risk mitigation solutions, including capital relief, to international banks, exporters and traders. She is recognised in the industry for her ability to negotiate cutting-edge insurance wordings and design innovative solutions. As a former Vice-Chair of the Investment Committee of the Berne Union and Chair of the Single Risk Committee of ICISA, she actively contributed to advocate for better and original structured solutions to the insureds to respond to their new challenges.
